

FRIENDS OF THE FESTIVAL NEWSLETTER

presented by citibank

November 13, 2010 • Saturday 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. • Wolf Pen Creek

Volunteer nominated for ACBV Volunteer of the Year

I am happy to share that Kelley Nease has been nominated as the Arts Council of the Brazos Valley Volunteer of the Year!

Kelley has been a committee chair since the beginning of the festival in 2007. In 2009, she came on at the last minute to help co-chair the volunteer committee. She did background checks and helped to seamlessly assign more than 200 volunteers at the event. She is incredible to work with and continues to be an integral part of the Brazos Valley Worldfest team! Go vote at <http://www.acbv.org/>. Voting closes on June 30 at 6 p.m. Please share this email with anyone who volunteered or attended Brazos Valley Worldfest!

2010 Performer Nominated for Tejano Music Award

Leti Y El Conjunto Central, first-time performer at Brazos Valley Worldfest 2010, has recently been nominated for two Tejano Music Awards. The group has been nominated for Best New Female Vocalist and Best New Group/Conjunto. Leti will be the first Tejano music band to be perform in the four year history of Brazos Valley Worldfest.

Learn more about Leti at <http://www.myspace.com/letiyelconjuntocentral>. You can also vote for them to win at www.tejanomusicawards.com. The awards are organized by the Texas Talent Music Association and will take place on July 11, 2010.

Interested in Having a Presentation on Brazos Valley Worldfest at your Organizational Meetings?

Contact Kim Fox about having a presentation on the history and future of Brazos Valley Worldfest at your organizational meetings. Kim is happy to come and share the exciting news about the community's only complete cultural and heritage festival. Email kfox@tamu.edu to confirm a presentation date.

Produced and Edited by:

Texas A&M University
Office of International Outreach

International Facts

Did you know?

- Baseball is Japan's most popular sport.
- Ethiopia, the oldest independent nation in Africa, was known anciently as Abyssinia.
- Linguists have catalogued around 836 distinct languages in Papua New Guinea.

Organized in cooperation by Texas A&M University and the City of College Station
Reply to this email to be removed from this newsletter or with any questions or comments about
Brazos Valley Worldfest or Friends of the Festival newsletter. 979-862-6700 or kfox@tamu.edu